

Juan Fresse has been involved in spiritual care, ministry and nonprofit work his entire professional career. He earned his BS in Counseling Psychology and his MA in Ministry. Juan has also received his training and certification as a Trauma Informed Care trainer and coach. He is thankful to be able to use his skills and experiences to positively impact the communities of the Inland Empire and beyond through his work at SAC Health.