

Miguel A. Vazquez, FAICP, is an award-winning planner with 20+ years of experience in the public, private, and military sectors. As a planning and health integration expert at RUHS-Public Health, Miguel partners with diverse stakeholders to advance the impact of planning on health. His recognitions include the 2018 American Planning Association (APA) President's Award and the 2021 Dale Prize from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona. In 2024, Miguel was inducted into the American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP) College of Fellows, the highest honor the AICP bestows upon a member. Miguel holds a bachelor's in Urban Studies and Planning from California State University, Northridge, and is pursuing a Master's in Public Health at Johns Hopkins University as a Bloomberg American Health Initiative Fellow.