

Ninfa E. Delgado, MPA is the acting President and CEO of RCHF. She provides day-to-day leadership and support to the Foundation's operations and organizational management, grant management, and the development of partnerships. In addition, Ninfa oversees the Foundation's affiliate, the Community Settlement Association.

Her professional career spans 27 years working in the nonprofit and public health sectors.

Prior to joining RCHF she served as a Health Care Social Worker for the Riverside County Department of Public Health, Program Developer for Inland Agency People Reaching Out, and an Outreach Counselor for the Youth Service Center (now Carolyn Wylie Center).

Ninfa is first-generation, born in the U.S. to Mexican parents. She lives her life rooted in faith, the fight for social justice and equity, and being in service to others.
