

Sonia Rezkalah is the Administrator of Family Engagement for the Riverside County Office of Education, where she leads countywide efforts to strengthen family-school-community partnerships. A passionate advocate for student and family success, Sonia provides training and support to educators, families, and community leaders, helping them build meaningful engagement practices that improve student outcomes.

As one of the original Freedom Writers, Sonia draws from her lived experiences to uplift voices often left out of the conversation. Her journey from immigrant student to motivational speaker and educational leader reflects her deep belief in the power of connection, healing, and purpose. Sonia's work centers on creating spaces where families are valued as essential partners in student success and well-being.
