

Warren Snider is a Staff Attorney with eight years of experience at Inland Counties Legal Services where he has worked in their Health Law Team since 2019. Warren graduated from UCLA School of Law in 2009 and has dedicated his career to public interest law. As a member of the Health Law Team, he regularly assists low-income, elderly, and marginalized clients to obtain insurance coverage, access medical services, and resolve medical debt. In addition to directly assisting clients, Warren also represents the team at community outreach events and in collaboration with other public interest programs throughout the country.
